OTHER CODES . . .

DATE OF ACTION: The column with this heading refers to the date the action was taken; e.g., the date of the offense in the case of traffic law violation resulting in a conviction. There is one exception . . . in the case of a discretionary suspension (Code 03), the date upon which the suspension becomes effective is indicated, instead of the date upon which the order was entered and filed.

DESCRIPTION OF OFFENSE: This column describes the type or nature of a traffic offense. The code which is used here is composed of the Chapter and Section number of the Uniform Act Regulating Traffic on Highways or the Municipal Code of the City of Chicago. For example, offense code 048 refers to Section 48 of the State Traffic Code . . . "Reckless Driving."

> The single digit code which precedes the Section number refers to the identity of the law . . . 1. Uniform Act Regulating Traffic on Highways . . . . 2. Local Ordinance (other than Chicago) . . . 3. Illinois Tollway Laws and Regulations . . . 5. Penal Code (felony) . . . 6. Drivers License Law . . . 7. Chicago Municipal Ordinance . . . 8. Foreign State and Other. For those persons making inquiry who do not have access to the Statute books, an explanatory law and offense code pamphlet is enclosed.

STATUTORY AUTHORITY: The code used here refers to the chapter and section of the Illinois Motor Vehicle Law which provides the authority for the action taken; e.g., 6 205 A2 is a mandatory revocation of a license after conviction of operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor.

ACCIDENT OR DOCKET NUMBER: This column contains the docket number or arrest ticket number (often the same) of a specific traffic offense. It also contains the motor vehicle accident number which is assigned to each case by the Safety Responsibility Section of the Highway Division.

TOTAL POINTS: This column contains a cumulative total of the number of points assigned to each individual traffic offense. A single minor offense will be purged after 18 months if no other conviction or accident reports are received during the period.

LENGTH OF SUSPENSION: The termination date of a discretionary suspension is shown here. In some cases the length of the suspension is indicated by the number of months, such as "6."

1. Petition is hereby made for a probationary license. The petitioner's license is suspended for the period described in the information box, by the Secretary of State, under the Illinois Motor Vehicle Law. In consideration for the issuance to the petitioner of a probationary license, the undersigned hereby agrees with the Secretary of State that;

   (A) The petitioner files herewith a $3.00 fee for a probationary license. Petitioner understands that if no such license is issued to him that his fee of $3.00 will be returned forthwith;

   (B) The petitioner returns herewith his license as described in the information box;

   (C) The petitioner waives his right to a hearing under the provisions of Section 2-117 of the Illinois Motor Vehicle Law;

   (D) The petitioner will, upon being notified by the Secretary of State, attend a "Driver Improvement Clinic". Failure to attend such a clinic will result in the cancellation of the probationary license, and reinstatement of the full period of the suspension;

   (E) The petitioner further agrees that the conviction of the petitioner of any offense against traffic regulations during the period of his probation will be deemed such a disrespect for traffic laws, and such a disregard for the safety of other persons on the highways, as to authorize the Secretary of State to cancel any probationary license issued to the petitioner, and to permit the Secretary of State to take such action of suspension or revocation against the petitioner, as the Law would permit or require in the absence of such a probationary license;

   (F) Petitioner understands that if no violation of this petition is made during its effective period that his suspension will be terminated and his original license will be returned to him, unless at that time, for some other reason, he is ineligible for a license;

2. As an inducement for favorable action by the Secretary of State, petitioner makes the statement on Page 4 regarding the traffic violations which he has been convicted of, and which gave rise to the suspension of his license by the Secretary of State. Petitioner further states what hardships he will suffer unless some relief

He advised that between LOUIS DE TRAIN and ROCCO SALVATORE the bets were accepted and payoffs made if the customer won any particular race. [redacted] advised that there was a telephone on the wall, which was torn out by the raiders, and that this telephone was being serviced by an individual whom he cannot now recall. He advised that this individual was apparently getting race results as periodically he would call out to patrons in the book and give results of various races. [redacted] could not recall what specific track results were being given. [redacted] advised that as best he could hear, there was a recording which was giving race results to the unknown individual who received it by phone and then transmitted it verbally to the patrons of the gambling establishment. He advised that this telephone was torn out of the wall by the raiding party and further advised that there was no telephone number on this telephone. He further advised that with the exception of SALVATORE and DE TRAIN he could not now recall what specific duties the other arrested individuals were performing at the time of the raid as they mingled with the patrons immediately. He further advised that in interviews conducted with the arrested parties, it was not determined where the race results were being obtained from and no one gave any information regarding the method by which race results were obtained. He advised that $21,986.20 as well as gambling paraphernalia and material was taken in the raid. He advised that ROCCO SALVATORE signed receipts for the money and the gambling paraphernalia. He advised that the book was in the basement of the Casa Madrid directly beneath the restaurant.

"Chicago Daily Tribune" 8/10/60 p.8, c.1, Part 2, reflects article entitled "Juke Account Throws Light on Kickbacks""Hoods Split $80,000 a year in payoffs" by [redacted] b6 b7C

"Secret records of the crime syndicate's lush juke box racket have been uncovered by the Tribune.

"The documents contain a detailed up to date weekly account of how Chicago gangsters split up more than $80,000 a year in payoffs from juke box operators.

"In 20 years of almost constant investigation of the racket by police, federal agencies, grand juries and congressional committees, the records now held by the Tribune never came to light.

"The juke box hoodlums, who fashioned their racket into a solid money maker for the crime syndicate, never permitted the records to get out of their hands. They turned back all attempts to gain the papers by subpoena.

"The Tribune turned up salary kickbacks to a labor racketeer,FRED TOM (Juke Box) SMITH, 61, of 6118 Sheridan Road, a former electrical union business agent.

"ROCCO SALVATORE of 5030 Adams Street, a buddy of JUKE BOX SMITH, is paid a salary and expense allowance totaling $135 a week by the firm. Senate committee agents said they believed that SALVATORE was another payroll phantom.

"Federal income tax agents long have suspected - but have been unable to prove that many of the hoodlums on the payroll were kicking back part or all of their salaries to JUKE BOX SMITH.

"A complete story of the salary kickbacks was disclosed for the first time by [redacted] a former professional middleweight prize fighter who went on the payroll May 13th at a salary of $125 a week plus an expense allowance of $35.00 a week, one of the "ghost" workers, in an interview with the Tribune." b6 b7C

"Battaglia Tangles in an alley and loses"

"The reputation of SAM BATTAGLIA, 53, as one of Chicago's toughest gangsters was exploded yesterday as a myth. A Chicago police sergeant, [redacted] did it with one punch. b6 b7C

"It all began when [redacted] and three other detectives of the Chicago Police Intelligence Squad set out to look over the mob conference in the home of SAM GIANCANA, at 1147 S. Wenonah, Oak Park.

"The meeting was said to have been arranged by GIANCANA to discuss measures to head off police investigations of eight recent gang murders which have been linked with the mob's loan sharks.

"In Oak Park, near BATTAGLIA'S home at 1114 Ridgeland Avenue, BATTAGLIA and his driver, ROCCO SALVATORE, a juke box racketeer spotted the Chicago Police Squad. The chase went to high speed for a mile until SALVATORE slammed his car to a stop in an alley near Elmwood Avenue and Division in Oak Park. [redacted] squad was close behind.

"Out of the car came BATTAGLIA. He cursed [redacted] attempted to tear his shirt and challenged him to a fight. The gangster attacked with two wild haymakers which missed. Then [redacted] pushed him away with a light left jab."

"At once BATTAGLIA who outweighed [redacted] by 20 pounds announced that he had overmatched himself. b6 b7C

"Don't hit me, don't hit me, you'll kill me. SALVATORE meanwhile ran down the alley shouting "Robbers". A resident called police who took the four Chicago policemen and the two hoodlums into the Oak Park Police station. Then BATTAGLIA said "Forget about the whole thing. I don't want any trouble over this. I don't want any part of these Chicago coppers".

Memo SA [redacted] 9/21/62 re "Criminal Intelligence Program" reflecting:

It is noted that on numerous occasions information has been furnished to the Intelligence Unit of the Chicago Police Department concerning fictitious registration of cars as well as improper registrations by many Chicago hoodlums and their associates.

Officer [redacted] Intelligence Unit, Chicago Police Department, advised that as a result of the number of instances where hoodlums have improperly registered their cars as well as their driver's licenses, an investigation has been instituted to obtain evidence of these irregularities so that it can be brought to the attention of the Secretary of State's Office in Springfield, Illinois, for appropriate action.

The following hoodlums are presently being considered as violators in this connection:

ROCCO SALVATORE, a chauffeur of SAM BATTAGLIA, resides with BATTAGLIA at 1114 North Ridgeland, Oak Park, and has registered his car to an address of 5418 Congress in Chicago.

"Chicago Daily News" 9/28/62 p.10, c.8, reflects article entitled "Hail Lifting of Hoods' Auto Tags"

"The head of the Police Intelligence Unit Friday hailed revocation of auto license plates of a bail bondsman and nine reputed crime syndicate figures as a move that will make it easier to identify hoodlums.

"The object is to get them to conform to the law like decent citizens do" said CAPT. [redacted] b6 b7C

"Illinois Secretary of State CHARLES F. CARPENTIER ordered revocation of the plates and also of title certificates of the autos when police complained that the 11 men had used fictitious addresses on the license and title applications.

"Those who lost licenses and titles included ROCCO SALVATORE, juke box boss.

[redacted] said the hoods have been successful in getting their names from car rental agencies."

92-737-658

"Chicago Daily Tribune" 9/28/62 p.13, c.1 reflects article entitled "Strip Hoods of Car Titles and Licenses".

CG 166-191

"The state license plates and auto title certificates of 11 persons with crime syndicate ties were ordered revoked yesterday because of phony addresses listed on applications.

"The revocations mean the crime syndicate figures not only cannot drive their automobiles but will be unable to sell them. A title certificate is required by law for an auto sale.

"CARPENTIER said those involved in the action have a right to demand a hearing and if it is granted, could move to amend their false applications. CARPENTIER and the undercover detectives expressed doubt, however, that any of the persons named in the orders would risk perjury action by doing so.

" Among those license plates and title certificates revoked included ROCCO SALVATORE, a juke box racketeer, who gave an address of 5418 Congress Street in obtaining license plate 842-482 for a 1962 Oldsmobile. His legal address, authorities say, is 1114 N. Ridgeland Avenue, Oak Park, the home of SAM BATTAGLIA, one of the city's toughest hoodlums. SALVATORE is reputedly related to BATTAGLIA and serves as his driver."

Information Regarding
SAM BATTAGLIA

According to source, the farm which SAM BATTAGLIA owns and operates near Elgin, Illinois, is not believed to be actually owned by BATTAGLIA but source speculates this farm is owned by the "outfit" and that BATTAGLIA merely has control of it because he is the boss of Melrose Park. It was informant's belief that inasmuch as "TOUGH TONY" CAPEZIO, the former boss of Melrose Park, had operated this farm while he was boss of Melrose Park, and that after he left it passed into the hands of [redacted] who was also a power in Melrose Park, that it was only natural for SAM BATTAGLIA to acquire control of the farm because of his position. According to source, SAM BATTAGLIA was set-up in Melrose Park by TONY ACCARDO. He further advised that [redacted] owns two horses stabled at the BATTAGLIA farm and that the name of one of these horses is "Guido's Boy." b6 b7C

According to source, ROCCO SALVATORE is also known as BOBBY DORE (ph) and is the uncle of [redacted] wife of JOE BATTAGLIA. ROCCO SALVATORE is a big bookmaker and [redacted] runs the Charm Club, 19th and North Avenue, Melrose Park, which is owned by SAM BATTAGLIA. ROCCO SALVATORE frequents the Charm Club regularly.

Source further informed that [redacted] also known as [redacted] (ph), is the chauffeur and bodyguard for SAM BATTAGLIA. He spends a great deal of his time on BATTAGLIA's farm.

Source further advised that JOE BATTAGLIA, 500 Winston Drive, Melrose Park, does all of the errands for SAM BATTAGLIA and is SAM's right-hand man in the Melrose Park area. JOE BATTAGLIA operates a gift shop in Addison, Illinois, in a new shopping plaza. This shopping plaza is allegedly owned and operated by [redacted] (ph).

On January 11, 1966, [redacted] advised he had learned that on Sunday morning, January 9, 1965, Lt. LOUIS REMKUS, Chief ANTHONY IOSCO and two other detectives conducted a raid on a poker game which was operating in the back room at Scaccia's Junk Yard, which is located approximately ½ block north of Lake Street on 25th Avenue on the east side of the street in Melrose Park. According to source, no arrests were made as a result of this raid as it was determined as soon as the door was broken upon that [redacted] was cutting the pot in the poker game. According to source, patrons of this game called the El Morrocco Lounge on North Avenue and apparently got in touch with SAM BATTAGLIA. After this call was made, BOBBY DORE [redacted] came over to the location of the game and verbally abused Chief IOSCO for conducting this raid without having first checked to make sure it was not an outfit game. Chief IOSCO apparently had no knowledge that this game was operating, and according to source, now that he is sure of the fact that the outfit is running this game, will continue to let it operate. Source further advised that [redacted] He further advised that [redacted]
